18th & 19th performance, 2nd round results, finals qualifiers

For Immediate Release Field Set for Tour Finals
By Susan Kanode

SAN ANTONIO --- Competition is winding down at the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo.

The second round was completed here on Saturday night and the ProRodeo Tour Round qualifiers were determined. Several contestants have been on a roll for the beginning of the rodeo season.

Johnny Emmons from Grandview, Texas recently won rodeos in Denver and Fort Worth. He put himself in position to win a San Antonio title also. Emmons roped his calf in 8.5 seconds at the SBC Center Saturday night. This was good for an eighth place finish in the round and combined with his first round time, tied him for third place in the over-all standings with 17.5 seconds. Jade Conner from Iowa, La., leads the calf roping with a time of 16.5 seconds on two runs.

Emmons leads the world standings in the roping with $21,111. He also leads the tour standings and is well on his way to qualifying for the tour Finale in Las Vegas in June and the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, also in Las Vegas, in December.

Tom McFarland is quickly making his name as one of the top bareback riders in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association. He has won money in Denver and Rapid City on his way to San Antonio. McFarland won the first round of competition here when he rode Sammy Andrews' horse named Willow Creek last Wednesday for 85 points. The eight-second effort was worth $4,378. He came back and scored 78 points on his second horse and is in a three-way tie for first place in the bareback riding.

McFarland will be riding with some heavy hitters here on Sunday. He is tied with former world champions Chuck Logue from New Braunfels, Texas and Lan Lajeunesse from Morgan, Utah. All three of these men have 163 points on two rides. Logue won the second round on Smokeless Johnny from Barnes Rodeo Company. His 87 point ride set an arena record here at the SBC Center and also won him $4,378.

The ProRodeo Tour Round will conclude the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo at the SBC Center on Sunday at 4 p.m.
