seventeenth performance

For Immediate Release
Second Round of Bull Riding Starts
By Susan Kanode

SAN ANTONIO --- There were three very happy bull riders at the SBC Center on Friday night, and eight that were very disappointed.

Travis Askew had a smile that went from ear to ear after scoring 80 points on Slim Fit from the Cervi Championship Rodeo Company. Askew, from Center, Texas, took the lead in the round and the over-all standings. He has a total score of 157 points on two rides and is now in position to win his first championship buckle from the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo.

Logan Knibbe, from Rockdale, Texas and Steven Turner from Cochrane, Alberta, Canada, also lasted the required eight seconds. These were the only three men to have qualified rides of the 11 who competed here at the seventeenth performance.

There are 24 bull riders that will compete here on Saturday. They all had scores in the first round and will be trying to qualify for Sunday's ProRodeo Tour Round. If the bull riding goes like it did Friday night, there will not be 12 men who have rides on two bulls.

In that case, the riders that posted the highest scores in round one will qualify for the tour round.

Rodeo competition continues in the SBC Center on Saturday at 1 and 7:30 p.m.
