Brothers Join Forces in Team Roping

By Susan Kanode

SAN ANTONIO --- Bucky and B.J. Campbell are both respected team ropers and have made their names known as first class heelers.

They have both qualified for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo, Bucky roping with Jason Stewart and B.J. roping with Richard Eiguren. This year, the Benton City, Wash., duo changed their game plan and is roping together, something they have done in the practice pen and at jackpots for years.

With B.J. doing the heading and Bucky doing the heeling, they set the pace in the second round of competition at the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo on Sunday. A perfect start and B.J. caught the horns. Bucky was in position, swung his rope just right and snagged two feet. When the clock stopped on the U.S. Smokeless Tobacco Co. scoreboard, the Campbells had set a new arena record of 4.3 seconds and taken the lead in the second round.

Unfortunatley, a no-time in the first round will keep them out of the over-all standings. This will be their only opportunity to rope in the SBC Center this year. If they can keep feeling the brotherly love and roping this well, the Campbells might be roping together at this year's NFR, rather than as competitors.

Rodeo competition continues in the SBC Center on Monday at 7 p.m.
