Bail Moves into All-Around Contention

SAN ANTONIO --- Jesse Bail made a huge move in his quest for a San Antonio all-around championship on Friday night.

Bail from Camp Crook, S.D., competed here in the saddle bronc riding and the bull riding. He had a previous score of 77 points in the bronc riding which netted him $132. While this is not much money, it is very important for his all-around chances.

He had a previous score of 73 points in the bull riding. This did not win any money, but was enough to get him to the progressive round in which he competed on Friday. Bail scored 83 points in the bull riding tonight which could get him a check. He needs to win more money than any other contestant in two events to win the all-around title and the GMC truck that goes with it.

It took 82 points to place in the first round of bull riding. Bails odds of getting a check in the bull riding are good. There has not been any other contestant to win money in more than one event so far at this years rodeo.

Bail is also in place to qualify for Sundays Wrangler ProRodeo Tour round where he could earn more money and either a bronc riding or bull riding title. He is currently in a three-way tie for third place in the saddle bronc riding and a two-way tie for third place in the bull riding. He has the best opportunity of the 1187 contestants here to qualify for Sundays Tour round in two events.

There are two performances at the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo on Saturday, at 1 and 7:30 p.m.
