Bull Riders Have Great Night

SAN ANTONIO --- The second round of the bull riding got off to a great start at the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo on Thursday.

Johnny Chavez from Bosque, N.M., rode the Flying Five Rodeo Company bull named Independence Day for a score of 90 points. This is the high marked ride of the rodeo so far. Chavez, who qualified for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in 1997, is in second place in the over-all standings with 159. This is just two points behind Joe Smith from Banner, Wyo., who is in first place with 161 points.

Scott Miller, originally from Australia but now living in McGregor, Texas, took the lead in the saddle bronc riding. He moved to the top of the U.S. Smokeless Tobacco Co. scoreboard when he scored 83 points aboard Sammy Andrews horse Copy Cat.

Rodeo contestants are finding their way back to San Antonio to compete in the final performances in hopes of qualifying for Sundays Wrangler ProRodeo Tour round. Those that did well in the first competition here and will be competing in the next four performances are going to have to do very well to move into the top 12 in the over-all category and spend the remaining two days here before Sundays finals.

There 17th performance of the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo will be Friday at 7 p.m.
