Lessman Overtakes Steer Wrestling Field

SAN ANTONIO --- There is a new gunner at the helm of the steer wrestling competition at the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo.

Josh Lessman from Sidney, Neb., is at the top of the U.S. Smokeless Tobacco Co. scoreboard with a total time of 9.8 seconds on two runs. Lessman stopped the clock in 4.8 seconds in the first round of competition prior to the rodeo. He ran his second steer here on Tuesday night and received a time of 5.0 seconds.

While Lessman did not receive a check in the first round and is three-tenths of a second out of the money in the second round, his consistency stands qualify him for the final Wrangler ProRodeo Tour round on Sunday, Feb. 17. Lessman was not the only steer wrestler to be successful here on Tuesday.

Nick Stubblefield from Helena, Mont., moved into a three-way tie for second place in the round with a time of 4.4. Stubblefield, along with Jeff Corbello, from Iowa, La., and Randy Suhm, from Riverton, Wyo., are all currently in the money. All three of these men are also among the top 12 in the over-all standings.

Suhm is in second place behind Lessman with a total time of 9.9 seconds. Stubblefield is in third with 10.1. Brothers Shawn and Teddy Johnson from Checotah, Okla., are tied for fourth with times of 10.5 seconds. Corbello is tied for seventh which may or may not stand for the final round.

The sixth performance of the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo will begin at 7 p.m. on Wednesday.
