Bull Riders Break Streak

SAN ANTONIO --- J.D. Garrett, Jr., carries the Garrett name like a flag. . Garrett is the nephew of world champion bareback riders Mark and Marvin Garrett. Not only is he carrying the name well, he is also carrying the winning traditions of his uncle's on. Garrett recently won the bareback riding title at the rodeo in Rapid City, S.D.

He came to San Antonio to compete at the Rodeo on Monday night. Garrett rode the horse named Little Fletch Justin for a score of 82 points and is now in the lead here.

Mark and Marvin will be competing here in the Saturday night and Sunday matinee rodeos. J.D. will be back here to compete in the second round on the final Friday of the rodeo. With any luck, the final Wrangler ProRodeo Tour Round on Feb. 18 will be a family affair for the Garretts.

The 2000 world champion bull rider, Cody Hancock from Taylor, Ariz., also saw his name go to the top of the U.S. Smokeless Tobacco Co. scoreboard. Hancock rode the bull named Black Savage for a score of 82 points. He is now tied for first place with Jason McClain from Kiowa, Colo. Both of these men will advance to the progressive round and ride here again.

The winningest femal jockey in the Quarter Horse racing industry took the lead in the women's barrel race here. Tami Fontenot, from Ethel, La., is the leader in the over-all standings with a total time of 31.26 on two runs. She already won nearly $800 here in the first round. While there is still a lot of competition left here, Fontenot may be among the top 12 in the over-all standings and qualify for the Tour round.

The fifth performance of the San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo will begin at 7 p.m. on Tuesday.
