2007 San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo Quarter Horse Scholarship Recipients

For Immediate Release

San Antonio, TX – Brittany Banks, 16, of Covington, Texas, Lexie St. Cricq, 18, of Houston, Texas, and Lyndsey Eller, 17, of Goliad, Texas, each were scholarship recipients for the Quarter Horse Show in this years San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo. The event was held February 10, 2007.

Brittany took home the top honor in this years show riding Mr. Golden Zipper, aka “Bud”, all the way to a $10,000 S.A.L.E scholarship. Brittany is currently a high school junior in Covington and enjoys swimming, shopping, and riding her many other “yella” horses. Along with this years success Brittany has also been the PHBA World & Reserve Champion in recent years. She would like to give thanks to her parents for all their time and patience; without them none of this would be possible.

Lexie captured the second place spot riding her way to a $6,000 S.A.L.E scholarship. She rode HEZALITTLEBITCOUNTRY in the Quarter Horse Show and credits her mother, Susan, stepfather, Charles, and trainer, Lonnie, for her success. Lexie was also the Reserve High Point Champion at the Fort Worth Stock Show. She is very excited to win this scholarship and she plans to attend Rice University.

Lyndsey was awarded third place and a $4,000 S.A.L.E scholarship on board Ole Rare Hope. Lyndsey is currently a junior at Goliad High School. In her free time she is actively involved in FFA and competes in Youth and High School Rodeos. This was Lyndsey's first Quarter Horse Show and she is very excited to win a scholarship. She would like to thank her grandparents for all their help and support; by taking her to all the shows.

We would like to congratulate our winners and thank everyone who came out for the show this year. We hope everyone will be back next year to compete, have a good time, and make it another memorable show. The Quarter Horse Show is run in conjunction with the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, sanctioned by the American Quarter Horse Association, and is a Texas Quarter Horse Association approved event.

Over 200 youth scholarships are given by the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, Inc. each year to Texas students planning on continuing their education through an agriculture related major at a university.
