2007 San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo Open Horse Show Scholarship Recipients

For Immediate Release

San Antonio, TX – Caresse McGee, 14, of Wimberly, Texas and Rebecca Barron, 18, of Channel View Texas won scholarships in the 2007 San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo all breed Open Horse Show. The Open Horse Show is a Paint Alternative Competition approved show which was held this year on February 18, 2007.

Caresse Michelle McGee, an eighth grader who home schools, took first place this year, winning a $10,000.00 S.A.L.E. scholarship. Her horse, TNT Rapped In Style is very consistent and loves peppermints between show classes. In her free time, Caresse is very involved with her local and county 4H Clubs and is also a leader, as well as being active in her church youth group. She says she was shocked by the win, and credits her parents and trainer for their support and guidance.

Rebecca Alice Barron attends Channel View High School as a senior. Rebecca and her horse My AnnaBelle took home the second place award and a $6,000.00 S.A.L.E. scholarship. Rebecca is active in FFA and 4H. She says she experienced a huge feeling of accomplishment when winning this award. She is grateful and says it was a good way to end her youth riding career.

Over 200 youth scholarships are given by the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, Inc. each year to Texas students planning on continuing their education through an agricultural-related major at a university.
