

ARRIVAL & RELEASE INFORMATION

All livestock must enter and depart through the East Gate according to their assigned arrival and release times.

All Swine, Sheep & Goat, Open & Junior Breeding Beef Cattle, Junior Market Steers, Commercial Steers, Market Lambs, Market Goats, Market Barrows, and Ag. Mechanics must first arrive at the Gemblar Road Livestock Office before entering the East Gate.

Check-in for each species will occur in the respective species show office on the grounds. All animals must be checked in with the show superintendent, or will not be eligible to show.

Beefmaster and All Breed cattle will stage at the Gemblar Road Staging area. Consigners will enter the East Gate and be directed to the Auction Barn.

Stalls will be assigned at the Gemblar Road Staging lot. To be stalled together, FFA Chapters and/or 4-H Clubs must wait until all members of the group, which they want to stall with, arrive on the Gemblar Road Staging lot.

Tack trucks must remain with their group and obtain a staging credential before entering the East Gate. San Antonio reserves the right to determine what constitutes an acceptable tack truck.

Exceptions to printed arrival and release times may be granted only with expressed written consent of Livestock Management. Participants should contact the Main Livestock Office at 210-225-0575, prior to arrival, if requesting early or late arrival and/or departure. If granted, Livestock Staff will process an ARRIVAL AND RELEASE EXCEPTION FORM and submit a copy to the East Gate Livestock Center.

When calling and requesting an arrival exception, be prepared to provide the following information:

- * Exhibitor name
- * Club or Chapter
- * Animal type
- * Breed
- * Number of head
- * Truck information (make, model, color, license plate)
- * Trailer information (type, length, color, license plate)
- * Expected time of arrival

Exhibitors arriving earlier than their assigned time, and not possessing written approval, will be turned away until their scheduled arrival time.

Exhibitors arriving later than their assigned time, and not possessing written approval, will be denied entry. Exhibitors staying beyond their assigned time, and not possessing written approval, may be asked to leave immediately.

Release times will be announced by the department Superintendent. No livestock may exit the grounds between 10 pm and 7 am.
