Knights of the Guild Continues to Entertain Crowds at the Horse Show

Come see The Knights of the Guild at Horse Barn 2 during the 2008 San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo! On Saturday, February 9th at noon, the medieval group will showcase their Tournament of Champions performance that portrays a royal 14th century knightly tournament. The Knights and horses will be costumed like in medieval times while demonstrating horsemanship skills. Thor, the world's tallest living horse will be featured in this show.

This is a family experience you don't want to miss! The show also combines lessons in good character and social skills, dramatically illustrated amidst the thrills of authentic medieval competition. Performed along with a musical soundtrack, The Tournament of Champions combines living history and character education together in an action-packed experience unlike any you've seen before!

Thor and the Knights of the Guild will also be in the Horse Center, located in front of Horse Barn 5, for the duration of the stock show & rodeo so be sure to drop by and see this magnificent horse up close.
