

Schedule of Events
At the
"TEXAS EXPERIENCE"

February 4 - February 21, 2010

Thursday, Feb. 4

- 4 PM – 7 PM The Ice Cream Shoppe
Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!
- 5 PM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.
- 5 - 7 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN
Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Learn how to cook using Texas made products.
- 6 PM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Friday, Feb. 5

- 10 AM – 8 P.M. GO TEXAN Food Sampling & Sales
- 10 AM – 7 PM The Ice Cream Shoppe
Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!
- 5 PM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.
- 5 - 7 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN
Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Learn how to cook using Texas made products.
- 6 PM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Sat., Feb. 6

- 10 AM – 8 P.M. GO TEXAN Food Sampling & Sales
- 10 AM – 7 PM The Ice Cream Shoppe
Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!
- 10 AM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.

- 11 AM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!
- 11:30 AM Shake, Rattle & More!
Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will have show you how!
- 1 – 2 PM
& 3 – 4 PM Blue Bell Ice Cream Social
There's an ice cream social and you're invited! Sponsored by Blue Bell Ice Cream. Come to the Texas Experience for a sampling!
- 2 PM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.
- 2 - 3 PM
& 4 – 5 PM Texas Wine Sampling
Stop by for a sample of Texas Wine and see what many Texans already know – Texas Wines are award winners!
- 3:30 PM Save for a Not-so-Rainy Day!
Rain Water Harvesting is the way to store rain that would otherwise run off. Come learn where and how to store this excess water for future use, and be on hand to win your own barrel for rain water storage! Sponsored by Texas AgriLife Extension Service and the Master Gardeners.
- 4:30 PM Shake, Rattle & More!
Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will have show you how!
- 5 PM In the Kitchen with Los Barrios - GO TEXAN
Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Learn how to cook using Texas made products.
- 6 PM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!
- 6 PM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.

Sun., Feb. 7

- 10 AM – 8 PM GO TEXAN Food Sampling & Sales
- 10 AM – 7 PM The Ice Cream Shoppe
Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!
- 10 AM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.
- 11 AM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!
- 11:30 AM Shake, Rattle & More!

Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will have show you how!

1 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Tilapia

Come learn how easy it is to use one of our local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Cooking Tilapia is easier than you think! Sponsored by R. Scott Enterprise and Olives Ole.

2 PM

Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!

Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.

2 PM

Finals of the Kid's Build a Sundae Contest

Stop by and see the sundaes that these finalists create as they compete for First Place.

2 - 3 PM
& 4 - 5 P.M

Texas Wine Sampling

Stop by for a sample of Texas Wine and see what many Texans already know – Texas Wines are award winners

3:30 PM

Save for a Not-so-Rainy Day!

Rain Water Harvesting is the way to store rain that would otherwise run off. Come learn where and how to store this excess water for future use, and be on hand to win your own barrel for rain water storage! Sponsored by Texas AgriLife Extension Service and the Master Gardeners.

4 & 6 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Eating Green!

Today's sampling will feature quick and easy to prepare Greens and Pasta, for those who love the thought of eating nutritiously but don't want the work associated with cooking. Come by and sample some of this delicious food sponsored by the Pearl Farmers Market Association.

4:30 PM

Shake, Rattle & More!

Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will have show you how!

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

6 PM

Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!

Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.

Mon., Feb. 8

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

9 AM – 2 PM

Food Facts

Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Expanded Nutrition Program, Texas AgriLife Extension, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.

5 PM

Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!

Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.

5 - 7 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN

Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make nutritious food any time of day. Learn how to cook using Texas made products.

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Tues., Feb. 9

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

9 AM – 2 PM

Food Facts

Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Education Service Center, Region 20, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.

5 PM

Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!

Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.

5 - 7 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN

Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make nutritious food any time of day. Learn how to cook using Texas made products.

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Wed., Feb. 10

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

9 AM – 2 PM

Food Facts

Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Expanded Nutrition Program, Texas AgriLife Extension, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.

Thurs., Feb. 11

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

9 AM – 2 PM

Food Facts

Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Education Service Center, Region 20, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.

5 PM

Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!

Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.

5 - 7 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN

Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make nutritious food any time of day. Learn how to cook using Texas made products.

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Fri., Feb. 12

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

- 9 AM – 2 PM Food Facts
Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Education Service Center, Region 20, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.
- 5 PM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.
- 5 - 7 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN
Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make nutritious food any time of day. Learn how to cook using Texas made products.
- 6 PM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!
- Sat., Feb. 13
- 8 – 11 AM Live with WOAI!
We're going live from the Texas Experience! Radio Personality Bill Rohde and Texas AgriLife Extension Horticulturalist David Rodriguez will be on hand as they host the WOAI Home & Garden Show. Stop by for a visit during their program.
- 10 AM – 8 PM GO TEXAN Food Sampling & Sales
- 10 AM – 7 PM The Ice Cream Shoppe
Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!
- 10 AM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.
- 11 AM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!
- 11:30 AM Shake, Rattle & More!
Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will show you how!
- 12 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Eating Green!
Today's sampling will feature quick and easy to prepare Greens and Pasta, for those who love the thought of eating nutritiously but don't want the work associated with cooking. Come by and sample some of this delicious food sponsored by the Pearl Farmers Market Association.
- 2 - 3 PM
& 4 – 5 P.M. Texas Wine Sampling
Stop by for a sample of Texas Wine and see what many Texans already know – Texas Wines are award winners!
- 2 PM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.
- 2 & 4 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Heart Healthy Pecans
Texas pecans provide a tasty treat and some great nutritional properties too! Come by to learn about pecans and have a sample or two! Sponsored by Wimberley Valley Nuts.
- 3:30 PM Save for a Not-so-Rainy Day!
Rain Water Harvesting is the way to store rain that would otherwise run off. Come learn where and how to store this excess water for future use, and be on hand to win your own barrel for rain water storage! Sponsored by Texas AgriLife Extension

Service and the Master Gardeners.

- 4:30 PM Shake, Rattle & More!
Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will show you how!
- 6 PM Snakes, Snakes and More Snakes!
Sponsored by the Alamo Area Herpetology Society, the snake experts will show and talk to us about common and some not so common snakes that reside in this area.
- 6 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Cooking With Honey
Using honey in your recipes is fun and nutritious! Learn how to incorporate honey in your everyday recipes. Sponsored by the Alamo Area Beekeepers Association.
- 6 PM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Sun., Feb. 14

- 10 AM – 8 PM GO TEXAN Food Sampling & Sales
- 10 AM – 7 PM The Ice Cream Shoppe
Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!
- 10 AM Skins, Skulls and Tracks!
What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.
- 11 AM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!
- 11:30 AM Shake, Rattle & More!
Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will show you how!.
- 1 PM Tree Giveaway
The tree giveaway will take place in the Texas Experience beginning at 1 PM until all the trees have found new homes! Sponsored by the Texas Forestry Association.
- 1 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Tilapia
Come learn how easy it is to use one of our local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Cooking Tilapia is easier than you think! Sponsored by R. Scott Enterprise and St. Phillips Culinary School.
- 2 - 3 PM
& 4 – 5 P.M. Texas Wine Sampling
Stop by for a sample of Texas Wine and see what many Texans already know – Texas Wines are award winners
- 2 PM Skins, Skulls and Tracks!
What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.
- 2 & 4 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Texas Shrimp!
Taste for yourself what Texans, culinary connoisseurs and chefs already know: when you want the best, you want shrimp from Texas. It's a difference to be experienced - with each bite you'll understand why Texas shrimp are worth asking for.
- 3:30 PM Save for a Not-so-Rainy Day!
Rain Water Harvesting is the way to store rain that would otherwise run off. Come learn where and how to store this excess water for future use, and be on hand to win your own barrel for rain water storage! Sponsored by Texas AgriLife Extension

Service and the Master Gardeners.

4:30 PM

Shake, Rattle & More!

Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will show you how!

6 PM

Skins, Skulls and Tracks!

What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Mon., Feb. 15

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

9 AM – 2 PM

Food Facts

Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Expanded Nutrition Program, Texas AgriLife Extension, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.

5 PM

Skins, Skulls and Tracks!

What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.

5 - 7 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN

Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make nutritious food any time of day. Learn how to cook using Texas made products.

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Tues., Feb. 16

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

9 AM – 2 PM

Food Facts

Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Education Service Center, Region 20, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.

5 PM

Skins, Skulls and Tracks!

What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.

5 - 7 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN

Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make nutritious food any time of day. Learn how to cook using Texas made products.

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Wed., Feb. 17

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

9 AM – 2 PM

Food Facts

Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Expanded Nutrition Program, Texas AgriLife Extension, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.

5 PM

Skins, Skulls and Tracks!

What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.

5 - 7 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN

Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make nutritious food any time of day. Learn how to cook using Texas made products.

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Thurs., Feb. 18

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

9 AM – 2 PM

Food Facts

Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Education Service Center, Region 20, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.

5 PM

Skins, Skulls and Tracks!

What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.

5 - 7 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN

Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make nutritious food any time of day. Learn how to cook using Texas made products.

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Fri., Feb. 19

10 AM – 7 PM

The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

9 AM – 2 PM

Food Facts

Geared towards children on School Tours, this presentation is focused on nutrition for kids. Sponsored by Education Service Center, Region 20, kids are encouraged to get involved with their food choices.

5 PM

Skins, Skulls and Tracks!

What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.

5 - 7 PM

In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN

Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make nutritious food any time of day. Learn how to cook using Texas made products.

6 PM

Safety in the Kitchen

How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Sat., Feb. 20

10 AM – 8 PM

GO TEXAN Food Sampling & Sales

- 10 AM – 7 PM The Ice Cream Shoppe
Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!
- 10 AM Skins, Skulls and Tracks!
What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.
- 11 AM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN
Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Learn how to cook using Texas made products.
- 11 AM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!
- 11:30 AM Shake, Rattle & More!
Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will show you how!
- 2 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN
Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Learn how to cook using Texas made products.
- 2 PM Skins, Skulls and Tracks!
What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.
- 2 - 3 PM & 4 – 5 P.M. Texas Wine Sampling
Stop by for a sample of Texas Wine and see what many Texans already know – Texas Wines are award winners!
- 3:30 PM Save for a Not-so-Rainy Day!
Rain Water Harvesting is the way to store rain that would otherwise run off. Come learn where and how to store this excess water for future use, and be on hand to win your own barrel for rain water storage! Sponsored by Texas AgriLife Extension Service and the Master Gardeners.
- 4 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN
Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Learn how to cook using Texas made products.
- 4:30 PM Shake, Rattle & More!
Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will show you how!
- 6 PM Skins, Skulls and Tracks!
What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.
- 6 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN
Come learn how easy it is to incorporate local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Learn how to cook using Texas made products.
- 6 PM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!

Sun., Feb. 21

- 10 AM – 8 PM GO TEXAN Food Sampling & Sales
- 10 AM – 7 PM The Ice Cream Shoppe

Sponsored by the Southwest Dairy Farmers, the Diner is making ice cream, using Texas milk of course!! Be sure to stop by for a treat!

- 10 AM Skins, Skulls and Tracks!
What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.
- 11 AM Safety in the Kitchen
How clean are your hands? What about your Kitchen countertop? Where do germs come from and how are they eliminated? The staff of the Texas AgriLife Extension Service will answer these and many more questions for you!
- 11:30 AM Shake, Rattle & More!
Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will show you how!
- 12 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Eating Green!
Today's sampling will feature quick and easy to prepare Greens and Pasta, for those who love the thought of eating nutritiously but don't want the work associated with cooking. Come by and sample some of this delicious food sponsored by the Pearl Farmers Market Association.
- 1 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Tilapia
Come learn how easy it is to use one of our local GO TEXAN products to make your meals more exciting! Cooking Tilapia is easier than you think! Sponsored by R. Scott Enterprise.
- 2 - 3 PM
& 4 – 5 PM Texas Wine Sampling
Stop by for a sample of Texas Wine and see what many Texans already know – Texas Wines are award winners!
- 2 PM Skins, Skulls and Tracks!
What animal makes these tracks, has a skull shaped like this, and wears a coat with these markings? Not sure? Stop by to find out and get your questions answered by the folks with Texas Parks and Wildlife.
- 3:30 PM Save for a Not-so-Rainy Day!
Rain Water Harvesting is the way to store rain that would otherwise run off. Come learn where and how to store this excess water for future use, and be on hand to win your own barrel for rain water storage! Sponsored by Texas AgriLife Extension Service and the Master Gardeners.
- 4 PM In the Kitchen with GO TEXAN – Eating Green!
Today's sampling will feature quick and easy to prepare Greens and Pasta, for those who love the thought of eating nutritiously but don't want the work associated with cooking. Come by and sample some of this delicious food sponsored by the Pearl Farmers Market Association.
- 4:30 PM Shake, Rattle & More!
Try your hand at calling in the big bucks, or learn how to call turkeys. The Wildlife area will show you how!