SAN ANTONIO STOCK SHOW & RODEO ORGANIZATION ELECTS NEW LEADERSHIP

SAN ANTONIO, TX –The San Antonio Livestock Exposition, Inc. (S.A.L.E.), the non-profit organization more commonly known as the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo, is proud to announce the installment of new Chairman of the Board, Steve Bridges, and Vice Presidents, Pat Frost, John Zachry, and Christine “Tina” Altgelt Haynes.

Steve Bridges has been involved with S.A.L.E. for over 19 years in several capacities and has served on the S.A.L.E. Executive Committee since 2003. Bridges became a Life Member in 1994 and a Director in 1997. Employed with Zachry Industrial for over 30 years, he is currently Vice President of Enterprise Strategic Development. Bridges is a Past President of the Miss Rodeo Texas Pageant and current President of RMEL, a non-profit electric utility organization. Bridges and his wife Candy reside in San Antonio and have five children and three grandchildren.

Pat Frost became a S.A.L.E. Life Member in 1995 and a Director in 2010. He is the President of Frost National Bank and Director of Cullen/Frost Bankers, Inc. Frost is an active civic leader who holds executive positions with over 20 worthy organizations and has received recognition for his charitable efforts from The United Way of San Antonio, The San Antonio Business Journal, The San Antonio Junior Chamber of Commerce, and many others. The Frost Family and Frost Bank have been avid supporters of S.A.L.E. for many years. Frost’s father, Tom is a retiring Vice President who served tirelessly on the Executive Committee for over 12 years. Frost and his wife Kelley Lynn Frost reside in San Antonio and have two children Patrick and Katie.

Tina Altgelt Haynes became a S.A.L.E. Life Member in 1983 and a Director in 1998. She has served on the S.A.L.E. Scholarship Committee in various capacities. Haynes has been a partner in her family’s third generation insurance firm, Sanger and Altgelt, since 1976. The Altgelt and Haynes families have been supporters of S.A.L.E. for several generations. Haynes is the Past President of Respite Care of San Antonio, Past President of Cancer Center Council, and the Current President of the Respite Care Foundation. Tina and her husband Joe Haynes reside in San Antonio as do their daughter Heather, Son-in-Law Judd Kraft, and their new grandson Judd Woodward Kraft.
